

Sacred Heart School Thornlie

From the Heart Newsletter - 2 May 2024

Principal's Message

Dear Parents

Welcome back to the new school term. I have had a great time on pilgrimage through Portugal, Spain and France. I was fortunate to visit many holy sites including Fatima and Lourdes. Particularly relevant given our focus on the Rosary in the month of May. I took many photos and have included a few below. I would like to thank Mrs Darlene Min for taking such great care of the school in my absence and doing a wonderful job as Acting Principal.

Uniforms

Over the last few weeks, we have been transitioning to winter uniform. We ask that all students now be in winter uniform. Please also ensure hair, shoes and jewellery items are in keeping with our school policy policies_uniform.pdf (shthorn.wa.edu.au)<sup>1</sup>

We are in the process of redesigning aspects of our uniform to make it more inclusive and child friendly. Hopefully we will have something to share with the community soon.

Mother's Day

I would like to wish all Sacred Heart Mums, Grandmothers and Female role models a very special Mother's Day.

Sacred Heart mums, grandmothers or female caregivers are warmly invited to celebrate Mother's Day by attending 'Muffins with Mum' followed by a special Mother's Day Mass on Friday 10 May 2024. Muffins with Mum will commence at 7.30am in the Senior Quad. A selection of muffins will be available for mums and students to enjoy. Mum's, please bring your keep cup if you would like to enjoy a cup of coffee or tea. Classrooms will be open from 8.15am for mums to go in and see some of the amazing work their child/ren have been doing. Mum's can then accompany their children to Mass in the church at 9am.

Happy Families

Our Happy Families article is about managing fatigue as a parent. Parenting can at times be exhausting and I hope the article gives you some ideas of how to manage your energy levels.

Kindergarten Enrolments

Kindergarten placement interviews for 2025 have commenced. Please ensure you have your application in as soon as possible. These can be located Enrolment Documentation - Sacred Heart, Thornlie (shthorn.wa.edu.au)<sup>2</sup> or from the front office.

Reverence

This term we are focusing closely on our core school value of Reverence. Please discuss this with your children at home when opportunities arise.

God Bless

Steve Gibbs

Managing Fatigue as a Parent – by Justin Coulson

If you're a parent, I can almost guarantee you're tired. Parenthood and fatigue seem inseparable. Infants and toddlers amplify our tiredness, but regardless of their age, raising children is tiring. (The impact of COVID, economic insecurity, and general life stress from recent years exacerbate this feeling).

It's tempting to see our parental exhaustion as a moral failing. We are worse parents when we are tired. We parent better when we feel alive and vital. But life conspires against us.

We'll never beat fatigue completely. The daily grind combines with ageing to ensure we'll be tired every day. It just happens faster with kids than without them! But we misunderstand two things about this exhaustion.

The first is that much of our tiredness is firmly within our control; it comes down to choices (with the exception of parenting young children who genuinely require us at ALL hours and remove a lot of choice for attentive and involved parents).

The second is that we think we have no way around our fatigue, whereas the truth is that we may not have learned better strategies to reduce our exhaustion.

We're also afraid... of change. What if we make a change and we're less tired, but that change requires us to sacrifice something we really like in our lives?

If we do have more control than we realise, and if strategies do exist, then there is value in making the attempt to reduce fatigue. The following three solutions feel kind of sucky because they're so obvious, but they work.

Solution 1

Sleep: The Ultimate Recharge

Sleep is non-negotiable, but so many of us treat it like a luxury item. Get real about sleep (unless you are dealing with a baby or toddler) by:

Switching off screens (no streaming, no socials, no games) at least 30 minutes before bed.

Focusing on reading or connecting with your partner before sleep. (Sex is great for enhancing exhaustion. Some people get tired just hearing it's a possibility! Others get tired right after it.

Shooting for a solid 7+ hours each night (recognising some people need up to 9).

Waking up early enough to be tired at night.

Staying off the coffee, sweets, and alcohol, particularly in the afternoon and evening.

Solution 2

Diet: Fueling the Body

Quick, sugary snacks and convenience foods exacerbate fatigue (and inflammation). It sounds boring, but:

Minimise drinking anything other than water (and drink plenty of it).

Increase your vegetable intake for snacks and at meals.

Grab a handful of nuts rather than sweets when you need a snack.

Prep well-loved, nutritious meals in batches on the weekend to minimise stress on busy nights.

Set up a routine where you have the same meals each week or fortnight to minimise cognitive load. Eg: Monday is Mediterranean, Tuesday is Tacos (Mexican), Wednesday is a one-pot solution, Thursday is Pizza, Friday is Fish, Saturday is BBQ, and Sunday is leftovers (or a roast).

Solution 3

Attention Management: Be Present

Multi-tasking is both exhausting and inefficient. Focus on one thing. Do it well. Be present. Engage. When complete, move on.

Your energy flows where your attention goes. Putting attention on too many things pushes energy in too many directions. Be clear on your focus. Direct your energy. Watch your productivity increase while your exhaustion drops.

Parenting requirements shift from moment to moment, day to day, and week to week. But improved sleep habits, better systems, and clearer focus will increase your balance and allow you more time and energy to spend on what (and who) matters most—your family.

Alumni/Generational Photo:

We are going to take a Generational photo this year. We have a number of families that are former students of Sacred Heart and are now proud parents. We thought it would be a lovely idea, especially with our 60 year anniversary next year, for parents that attended Sacred Heart themselves to have a special group generational photo along with their children. If you attended Sacred Heart we would love to hear from you and ask if you can please complete this form

<https://forms.office.com/r/Hz0FHGsDED><sup>5</sup>. The Generational photo will be taken on Wednesday 15 May at 8am in the Hall. It will be wonderful to see the generations of Sacred Heart come together in the spirit of community and nostalgia.
